This product is made of raw material from well managed forests based on the sustained yield principles allowed by Indonesia State Forest Enterprise.

We take pride in maintaining good forest management. Ecological and environmental aspects will be taken into consideration in all aspects of our sunroom production.

ECO friendly MATERIAL

Rattan is a climbing palm which grows rapidly along the riverside to dry land. It is found in several Indonesia islands.

Traditionally rattan is cut to reduce the chances of forest fires. Due to its fast growing characteristics, rattan should be harvested frequently.

The more often it's cut, the faster it will grow back. Rattan cultivation presents a bright future for the furniture industry.

The finish of our sunroom furniture is created without the use of harsh chemicals. A little variation of finish color will occur at times.

Our sunroom products are for indoor use only. If they were to be displayed outdoor, the color may slightly change with time due to the ultraviolet reaction. In addition, depending on the environment, mildew or mold may grow on the rattan.
