Tommy Bahama HOME

OCEAN CLUB

INFLUENCES: The "resort" side of the island – where tiki torches have become aroma-therapy candles, and the floating bar has been replaced by an infinity pool with concierge. Ocean Club designs have clean lines and a distinctive horizontal perspective that lend the collection a contemporary feel. There is also a hint of Asian influence inspired by islands in the Pacific. The juxtaposition of vertical elements against the horizontal design motif creates dramatic visual interest.

MATERIALS: Hickory veneers and select hardwoods, with various materials on select pieces including honed Travertine, crushed bamboo, woven rattan, sand blasted glass doors, and distressed metal. Upholstery features woven rattan in addition to exposed wood and fully upholstered frames in fabric and leather.

DRAWER CONSTRUCTION: English dovetails, wood runner & guides, drawer stop, Tommy Bahama drawer plaque

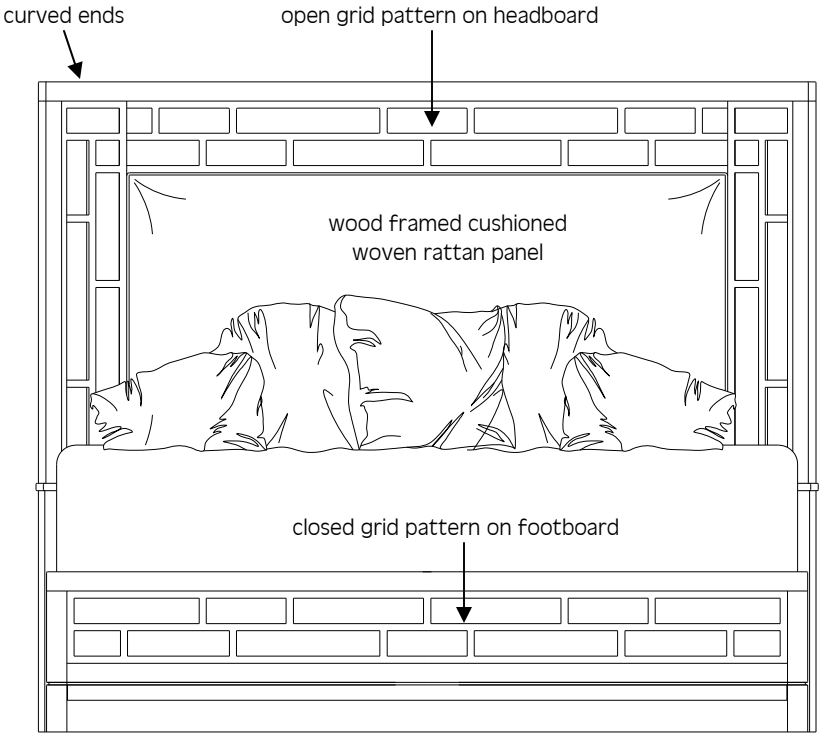

HARDWARE: custom designed, plated in an antique brass finish and applied before finishing to blend with case finish

FINISHES: 536 BALI – sun-drenched medium sienna coloration; parsons leg bases are finished in a rich walnut to create visual depth
BALI – standard upholstery finish

STANDARD DINING CHAIR FABRICS: 487911 GOLDEN BAMBOO – textured woven in golden ivory; 481071 CALEDONIA – tan and rust geometric pattern

UPHOLSTERY FABRICS:
Grouping 1: The pairing of pure white with a pop of turquoise makes for a very fresh setting. A white textural body cloth is paired with a white diamond patterned fabric, two turquoise woven silks and a stylized bamboo embroidered pattern on linen.
Grouping 2: The bold contrast of black and white creates a dramatic contemporary setting. The textural white body is paired with black contrast welt. A woven black and white silk with a contemporary leaf pattern and an Asian geometric are key elements. A woven black raffia and a grey wave patterned fabric complete the correlation.
Grouping 3: This gold and black color story is an ideal tropical contemporary setting. The body fabric is a chenille stripe with a tribal feel. It is paired with two black tropical patterns and a slubby gold woven to achieve an eclectic look. A spherical geometric is added to contemporize this group of fabrics.
Grouping 4: Think neutral textures of ivory and latte with a Pan Asian feel. A large scale bamboo patterned body cloth with a matching contrast welt is paired with a nubby texture and a modern geometric fabric. A luxe gold embossed leather rounds out this correlation.
Grouping 5: This neutral setting has a pop of turquoise added in the mix. A sand colored textural body cloth is complemented by a tribal stripe and sunburst patterned silk of turquoise and chocolate. A nubby turquoise cloth adds more texture and interest to this collection.
